January 10, 1941

Dear [Name]

Many thanks for your letter. I can only say that the new drug is about to be tested in human beings under carefully controlled conditions, and until that is done we shall not know whether or not it is safe for human use.

Sincerely yours,

Albert B. Sabin, M.D.

ABS:UJR