

A Note From

RABBI HENRY E. KAGAN

132 Crary Ave
Mount Vernon, N.Y.

Dear Dr. Sabin

I was pleased to read in The New York Times of the honors which your Alma Mater will confer upon you and which you so richly deserve.

My son, Jonathan, a senior at Brown has applied for admission to the Medical School of the University of Cincinnati. Could you put in a good word for him to the extent that he might have the opportunity of an interview? I know my brother Ben Kagan, whom you know, would join me in being grateful for your interest.

Sincerely yours, Henry Kagan
