Dear Albert:

We shall be happy to take part in the round table discussion on poliomyelitis and should like to present two papers:

I am sorry to have so many names attached, but we have all been involved in the work and it is difficult to separate the responsibilities. If the National Foundation should decide to pay some of the expenses, it would be appropriate for them to meet the expenses of the two younger men who will give the papers--Dr. Rasmussen and Dr. Waisman, respectively. I expect to attend the meetings, but I do not know whether Elvehjem will be there or not.

With warmest greetings and with the hope that you have forgiven the omission in our last paper, I am

Sincerely yours,
