WAR DEPARTMENT
The Adjutant General's Office
Washington 25, D.C.

AGAO-C 200.14 (1 May 47)

SUBJECT: Invitational Travel Orders, IJ-Tokyo-PC

TO: The Commanding General Air Transport Command.

1. The following named Physicians are hereby authorized and invited to proceed on or about 1 June 1947 from Fairfield-Suisun Army Air Base, California by air to Tokyo, Japan, so as to arrive on or about 7 June 1947 on temporary duty for approximately one hundred and five (105) days to conduct a clinical, chemical and bacteriological study of the acute diarrheal disease skiri, and upon completion of this mission, to return by air to Fairfield-Suisun Army Air Base, California.
   US-SW-3-16028-PAY-JUN.

   NAMES

   Dr. John Buddingh
   Dr. Katharine Dodd
   Dr. Samuel Rapoport

2. Travel by military aircraft is directed as necessary in the military service for the accomplishment of an emergency war mission. Travel expenses, including subsistence, will be borne by individuals concerned.

3. Prior to departure from the continental United States, personnel will be required to have completed the prescribed immunizations in conformity with current War Department instructions.

4. Baggage to accompany each individual will be marked with owner's full name, accompany individual to the port of aerial embarkation and limited to sixty-five (65) pounds. Excess baggage of two hundred (200) pounds, consisting of delicate laboratory equipment requiring personal handling is authorized for the group.

5. Immediately prior to departure for port of embarkation personnel will advise correspondents, except publishers, that mail will be addressed to shown name and Central Mail Directory, APO 503, c/o Postmaster, San Francisco, California.
   Publishers will be advised to withhold mailings of publications until advised of a complete permanent overseas APO address. Immediately upon arrival overseas and determination of the APO address to which they will be assigned for mail service, personnel will advise their correspondents, publishers, and the address shown above as to the APO address to which their mail should be sent.
6. The Commanding General, Air Transport Command, will furnish the necessary air transportation and coordinate with all concerned.

7. This personnel may be contacted through Captain J. M. Normington, PC, Office, The Surgeon General, Room 26 L699, The Pentagon, Washington, D.C., telephone Republic 6700, extension 7461.

8. In the event that personnel named in this order cannot report as directed, the contact will inform the port of embarkation, via teletype or other expeditious means, of the names of such persons; his travel order shipment identifier; statement such person will not report pursuant to port call or as directed in orders, and when such person will be available.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

/s/ B. J. Tourville
Adjutant General

COPIES FURNISHED:

Individual through contact (1)
Contact (2)
CO, Fairfield-Suisun AAB, Calif (2)
FEC (1)
APS, AGO (2)

CERTIFIED TRUE COPY

J. M. Normington
Captain, Pharmacy Corps