Once Professor Armstrong had substantial interests with non-University, he came to the University and requested that his status be changed. As of March 1, 1979, at his request, he is on half-time teaching status and reduced pay, but his faculty rights and privileges remain the same. President Winkler said, "Professor Armstrong initiated this action and in so doing he acted in a most honorable manner."

A K 3/2/79

Notified Post and Enquirer 3/2