OHIO ARTS COUNCIL AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT entered into this day of  , 19 , by and between the Ohio Arts Council (an agency of the State of Ohio), and hereafter referred to as the "Council" with offices at 50 West Broad Street, Columbus, Ohio, 43215, and the "Participant" who is listed immediately below:

University of Cincinnati
c/o Patricia A. Renick
615A Brodie A-1
Cincinnati, Ohio 45221

WHEREAS, the Participant has requested financial assistance for an arts project titled, Triceracopter Americus - Sculpture Commission and has furnished a true and acceptable budget for said project to the Council, and

WHEREAS, the Participant pledges $2,000.00 as matching funds to qualify for Council assistance, and

WHEREAS, between September 1, 1975, and August 31, 1976, the Participant shall perform the following services:

Alfred Commission Patricia A. Renick to complete a sculpture centered on the general theme of "peace, the hope for the eventual obsolescence of war". The completed work will be approximately 12 feet high and 30 feet in length, fabricated in fiberglass and incorporating an armed OH-6A Cayuse helicopter airframe with a triceratops dinosaur. The sculpture will be presented at the Contemporary Arts Center in Cincinnati, Ohio, during the months of May, June and July of 1976 and then will be made available for exhibition to other arts and academic institutions around the nation. Following any such exhibitions, the work will be on permanent display at the University of Cincinnati.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the above statements, the Council shall pay to the Participant an amount not to exceed the sum of

$2,000.00 - Two Thousand and - 100 Dollars, on the following conditions:

1. This agreement is conditioned upon the availability of funds appropriated to the Council or available to it from other sources.

2. After completion of the arts project, and submission of such documentation as the Council may require evidencing such completion, and upon receipt of the Participant's financial report, as outlined in Article 9, detailing all sources of income and all expenses incurred by the arts project, the Council will process a warrant made payble to the Participant for an amount not to exceed that stated above. The Council shall not be responsible or liable for any deficit arising from the arts project.