Pianist Tzu-Yin Huang began playing the piano at the age of four in Taiwan. An outstanding solo performer, as well as a sensitive chamber musician, she has experience performing great music with amazing instrumentalists. As an active pianist, she also plays piano in orchestra and contemporary ensembles. Recently, she graduated from the University of Michigan School of Music, Theatre and Dance with a double Master’s Degree in piano solo performance and chamber music, and now she is pursuing her doctoral degree at the University of Michigan studying with Professor Louis Nagel.

Ms. Huang has received numerous awards and has won the National Taiwan Normal University Piano Concerto Competition, and also the Yamaha Piano Competition. She has received scholarships from National Taiwan Normal University for her undergraduate work, a fellowship from the University of Michigan for her Master’s Degrees, and a full fellowship as a Graduate Student Instructor for her doctoral work at the University of Michigan.

Tzu-Yin believes that sharing music with her true heart and joy enables her to touch people’s souls. This is the secret to being a music magician!

CCM has become an All-Steinway School through the kindness of its donors. A generous gift by Patricia A. Corbett in her estate plan has played a key role in making this a reality.
