The paper strip securing the lantern slide was detaching from the glass in some areas, and it was adhered with wheat starch paste using a small brush. Both lantern slides were housed in a four flap enclosure and placed in an envelope.