Re: "SABIN"
Registration No. 722,414

Dear Dr. Sabin:

The trademark statutes require that within the year following the first five years of registration an affidavit of continued use must be filed and with the affidavit evidence, such as a current label, must be filed to show that the mark is still being used. In the event that the mark is not being used, an affidavit excusing such use may be filed.

We would appreciate your letting us know if you have any interest in continuing to maintain this registration and if so, would you please give us details as to how the mark is presently being used.

Very truly yours,
