Dear Doctor Sabon,

At last I have the cheque for you. It was waiting for me when I got home today - after a few days with Westwood at Padua.
I hasten to send it on to you with apologies for being so slow.
My main trouble has been the necessity of persuading the Treasury that you sent this money in the first place. At last they seem satisfied that this is so.

Yours sincerely,

G.W. Sheffield.
