

2 There was some time and money spent, and men were seen that had some influence, as California Chandler Mc Clatchey Hobst and others, and it seems that all were favorable, and if any I have mentioned were not favorable they agreed not to be entangled with at least.

It seems all were favorable, but the labor leaders, who are politicians, and in control at this time.

A few of the powerful politicians, of course, were not favorable, and these ~~politicians~~ are supported body and soul by the Political labor leaders.

Is this not a fine situation in the late day? labor men sacrificing even their five year terms in jail, and even shielding others, and when they try to get out of jail and are prevented by a few politicians, men that call themselves representatives of labor, still support the same political powers that refuse to let labor men out of jail.

Clarence Darrow and Lincoln Steffens have been working along the lines mentioned above, and the Steffens to see the people mentioned above, and the Political labor leaders resented the move of Darrow & Steffens. The labor leaders have done nothing themselves and resent a move ~~that~~
