Dear Dr. Sabin,

Here is a copy of the chapter. It was quite a task trying to do justice to the subject in the given space. I tried--I hope you like it. If there are any errors of fact, I would most appreciate your noting them on this copy and returning it to me.

I have been working on a similar profile of Max Theiler and his work, and reluctant as I am to ask any more of you, I wonder if there are any reminiscences about him that you might share.

The book itself progresses more slowly but also better than anticipated, so I do not have much to complain about at the moment. I hope all is well with you, and thank you again for all your help.

Most sincerely,

Carol Eron
