Dear Dr. Sabin:

I realize that you are extremely busy; however, I would be most grateful to you if you would take a few minutes to look over the enclosed manuscript by Chumakov, et al.

This manuscript has been submitted to us for publication in Clinical Medicine. I have read it carefully; however, I would not accept it for publication unless you agreed. The reason is obvious; namely, in the fact that he repeatedly refers to you and I would want to be sure that what he says meets with your approval before accepting it for publication.

I would greatly appreciate your comments and ask you to return the manuscript with your comments when convenient.

Cordially and sincerely yours,

Wallace E. Herrell, M.D.
