My dear, dear Dr. Sabin:

Your letter made me most happy and I speak to you like an older brother. Everything was pleasant and enjoyable, but what hurt me horribly was your extra little commentary about personal afflictions. You know how much we all love you and it is most serious that I should like to know if there is any possible way that I can bring out a word of encouragement or help.

I just want you to know how proud I am of you and also the time that we both spoke at the Drake Hotel twenty-five years ago.

I am sponsoring a chair for Haddasah and I know that you would encourage me. Please let me know a tiny bit about whatever affliction you might have and I most humbly would do anything in the world to let you live to a hundred.

Your real pal

M. J. Fox, M.D.
