Abbreviated Treatment Report

Description:

This is a UC Aerospace PhD qualifying exam from May 3, 1973. The exam is composed of 16 sheets of light beige wove paper typewritten on the recto, and all stapled together on the top left corner. There is not much information about this item, except it belongs to the Neil Armstrong archival collection at the Engineering library.

Condition:

This item is in good condition, with some minor evidence of wear along the edges and corners. There are creases along the upper left corner where the pages have been folded. In general, the cream (1) medium (1) thick very smooth paper is beginning to yellow around the edges, especially on the uppermost sheets.

Treatment Proposal:

No treatment needed at this time. House in a polyester sleeve with buffered Dove Grey paper and house in a manuscript folder.

Housing:

Exam was housed in a polyester sleeve with buffered Dove Grey paper and stored in a manuscript folder. [HT 15 mins]
