Dear Miss Goodfriend:

I appreciate very much the kindness of the O.W.I. in forwarding to me the pamphlets from Stockholm. They are of great interest to me. This is a function which I had not realized was performed by the O.W.I. I should like to say that it is a worthwhile function and I am very pleased to benefit by it.

I should like to take advantage of your kind offer to transmit a letter acknowledging receipt of these pamphlets. Enclosed you find such a letter addressed to Professor Kling.

Very truly yours,

Albert B. Sabin,
Lt. Colonel, M.C.

Enclosure: Letter to Prof. Kling.
